Resolution unanimously passed by the Baltimore Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, that the consent of the Conference is herewith given to the transfer of the membership and property of the Salem, Forest Hill, Macedonia, Bethany and Greenwood Churches of the Garrisonville Circuit, Washington District, and of the Linconia, Franconia and Accotink Churches of the Linconia Circuit, Washington District, to the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the same being requested by the members and trustees of said Churches, believing that this action will increase the efficiency of the Church of Christ in these localities, and will strengthen the bonds of our common Methodism.

(Signed)

Washington District."

"REV. JOHN W. R. SUMWALT:

"The Baltimore Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, in session at Roanoke, Va., sends Christian greetings to the Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church.

"We acknowledge, and hereby express our high appreciation of the unanimous vote of your Conference in transferring the property and membership of the churches at Salem, Forest Hill, Macedonia, Bethany, Greenwood, Linconia, Franconia and Accotink. We assure you of our recognition of the brotherly spirit expressed in said action and we hereby accept the sacred trust of caring for these churches and will endeavor to cultivate this field to the glory of God and the salvation of the people. We also express our delight in the increasing spirit of fraternity between our branches of our Methodism.

(Signed)

E. V. REGESTER, Secretary."

The Order of the Day having arrived for the consideration of the Memorial from the Methodist Preachers' Conference of Roanoke, Va., concerning the change in the time of the meeting of the Annual Conference, the Memorial was read, as follows:

"WHEREAS, We believe that the spiritual and material interests of the Church will be enhanced and our ministry made more effective by changing the time of holding our Annual Conference from the spring to the fall;

"Therefore, be it resolved:

"2nd. That when this session adjourns it adjourn to meet the 1st Wednesday in October, 1913.

(Signed) :

"J. HERBERT BEAN, Secretary."

A motion to lay the Memorial on the Table was lost by a vote of 80 to 86.

Upon motion of J. W. Duffey the following was presented to the Conference:

"WHEREAS, We believe the spiritual and material interests of the Church will be enhanced and our ministry made more effective by changing the time of holding our Annual Conference from the spring to the fall;

"Therefore be it resolved:

The motion did not prevail.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

All signs point to the fact that we are in the midst of a great Missionary Era. The opportunity in the missionary fields and the awakening consciousness of the Church at large portend a coming advance movement that will sweep multitudes of souls into the Kingdom of God. The Baltimore Conference must bear her part in the battle if she would share in the final triumph.

HOME MISSIONS.

It is worthy of note that for the first time in our history as a Conference the assessment for Home Missions has been larger than that for Foreign. While this assessment has not been paid in full, there has been a splendid advance which indicates the deepening interest of our people.

The increasing tide of immigration, the slums of our cities and the uncultivated rural districts emphasize the necessity for greater activity at home and make an appeal for still larger generosity on the part of our people.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

There must be a planting of seed before a gathering of any harvest. Following this law our General Board of Missions has issued a large number of publications which are to be commended to our people. When the Church knows, then she will move forward to still greater conquests, and we therefore urge our pastors to give particular attention to the dissemination of this literature, and especially stress the need of an increased circulation of the Missionary Voice throughout our Conference.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL AND MISSIONS.

We are justly proud of the achievement of our Sunday Schools in contributing $23,588.00 to the cause of Missions last year, and we feel certain they will measure up to the same standard this year, if indeed, they do not exceed it. We recommend that all of our schools adopt and use the Missionary policy prescribed by the Board of Missions.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE AND MISSIONS.

We commend the policy of our Epworth League Board to raise a special fund of $50,000.00 for our Cuban work, and urge all of the Epworth Leagues of our Conference to join heartily in the movement, as some have already done.

LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT.

We note with pleasure the increasing interest and effort of our Laymen in the cause of Missions. The Laymen's Movement is now a recognized department of our Ecclesiastical Organization and under its plan we are developing a force of Lay Leaders who are demonstrating a most commendable leadership in their special field. Judge E. D. Newman, our Conference Lay Leader, and his corps of Lay Leaders have done a work this year that deserves the thanks of the entire Conference.

WOMAN'S WORK.

The reports of the work done by our women in both departments show gratifying progress. In particular, the work of Miss De Etta Whitwell, the Deaconess at Wilkens Ave., Baltimore Md., is a demonstration of what can be done by these Societies in helping to solve some of the perplexing problems which confront the Church.

FINANCIAL PLAN.

We indorse the financial plan of the Laymen's Movement as being the best ever devised for raising Missionary funds. This plan consists of a Missionary Committee for each Church, whose duty it is to make an every-member canvass of the membership to secure a weekly offering for Missions. (The canvass may include all of the connectional claims). We believe this method of church finance will work with equal facility in all of our charges, and we urge our pastors and Lay Leaders to put it to a practical test at once.

The "Duplex-envelope," wherever used, has proved a most valuable accessory to the financial system outlined above.

CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SECRETARY.

We recommend that as soon as practicable the Conference request the appointment of a Conference Missionary Secretary to devote his whole time to the work. Your Board is more than ever convinced that the Conference will not reach its highest Missionary efficiency until such a man is employed. We call the attention of the Conference to the fact that the General Board of Missions urges the appointment of a Conference Missionary Secretary in every Conference to devote his whole time to the work, and points out that every Conference, which has taken this advance step has not been disappointed in the results realized. It is the earnest hope of your Board that the Conference at an early date will authorize the employment of a Conference Missionary Secretary who can serve in his office without the handicap of a pastoral charge.

For the coming year we recommend that the Conference request the Bishop to appoint Rev. D. L. Blakemore, Conference Missionary Secretary, in connection with a pastoral charge.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

We recommend that the Committee on Evangelism be composed of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

H. M. CANTER, Secretary.

CARLTON D. HARRIS, President.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY OF THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE BALTIMORE
CONFERENCE FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH, 1912.

Dear Fathers and Brethren—

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Baltimore Conference continues to prosper. Not greatly increased in numbers, the faithful praying band of women have for some years reported an annual increase in funds. To nothing can this be attributed but to the help of God. Through Him our small means are multiplied, and our few workers carry on the warfare of a large army. We long for the day when all the women of our Conference shall be joined with us in the effort to serve heathen souls.

The Treasurer's report shows the regular work in good shape; and nearly all the specials in advance. The Rio Building Fund, to which we are giving our main strength, is not quite up to the mark we have set; but everything else is in full. When we have finished the pledge for Rio which we made to cover four years, we hope then to persuade our members to give their offerings in a lump sum, to be appropriated by the Woman's Missionary Council.

We ask again your aid and prayers; and regard ourselves pledged to stand by all the work of our Church under your direction.

Sincerely,

NINA WILSON, Corresponding Secretary.

The House Department of our Missionary Work comprises the various forms of activity by means of which the women of the M. E. Church, South, are trying to meet and solve the problems that face the Christian Church in our own country today. The above figures show to what extent the women of the Baltimore Conference are assuming their part of the great responsibility of evangelizing and uplifting their native land.

Those familiar with the statistics of the Baltimore Conference Home Mission Society in former years will rejoice at the increasing number of auxiliaries as shown by this year's report, but lest they should also note and be grieved by an apparent decrease in the amount of both dues and specials it should be explained that, owing to the shifting of the beginning of the fiscal year of the society from March to January, this report covers only ten months—so the falling off in the collections is only apparent after all.

While, however, there is much to encourage us in this report, there still remain many unused opportunities, much undeveloped resource, and we would appeal to the brethren of the ministry to aid in awakening the membership of our churches to the great needs and the vast opportunities of Christian work in our home land.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

RANDOLPH-MACON SYSTEM.

Reports from the various institutions of this system show that these schools continue to hold a high and honored position among the institutions of learning in our country.

There has been a slight increase in property value and endowment and an encouraging increase in the number of students.

Randolph-Macon College at Ashland has made a splendid record this year, and its future has never before been so bright. There are 154 students, the largest enrollment in its recent history, and 28 of these are preparing for the ministry. A revival of religion among the students resulted in the conversion of sixteen and the reconsecration of forty-five.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College at Lynchburg has increased its endowment by $9,500.00 and has 52 more students than last year.

Randolph-Macon Academy at Front Royal reports that out of an enrollment of 170 pupils, only 9 are students for the ministry. This school also reports that 55% of its students are from the Baltimore Conference territory, 5% from the Virginia Conference territory, and 45% from Methodist families.

Randolph-Macon Academy at Bedford has reduced its bonded indebtedness, and has improved the school property.

Randolph-Macon Institute at Danville reports an increase in the value of school property, and a slight decrease in the number of pupils.

Altogether, this system represents a property value of $885,754.76 and an endowment of $503,588.61, making a total of $1,389,313.37. There are 106 teachers and 1,318 pupils, an increase of 68.

These schools are rendering efficient service in the cause of Christian education and merit the patronage of our people.

SOUTHERN SEMINARY SYSTEM.

The several institutions known as the Southern Seminary System are maintaining the high class of work which has heretofore justified the commendation of the Conference, and we feel that we can continue, without reservation, the recommendation heretofore given them as in every way worthy of patronage of our people.

The Southern Seminary at Buena Vista has a plant well located, well arranged and well equipped for its purposes, which is valued at $100,000, and reports for the year 21 teachers and 135 pupils. Since the last Conference, this school has been incorporated as a joint stock company, of which company Brother T. T. Fishburne, of Roanoke, is the efficient president, and the prospects for further growth along all lines, under the new conditions, are bright.

The Alleghany Collegiate Institute at Alderson, W. Va., has property valued at $17,500.00, and reports for the present year, teachers, 8, and pupils, 117.

Bowling Green Female Seminary, at Bowling Green, Va., lies within the bounds of the Virginia Conference, and is being successfully conducted under the superintendency of Rev. C. K. Millican, of our Conference.

We recommend that Revs. E. L. Woolf, D. M. Brown and M. D. Mitchell, or their successors, be appointed a Visiting Committee for the Southern Seminary, and that the Revs. L. S. Rudasill and J. W. Beall, or their successors, be appointed a Visiting Committee to the Allegany Collegiate Institute, and that the expenses of said committees be paid by the respective institutions, and we request that these committees make a written report to the Board of Education.

REPORT OF SECRETARY AND TREASURER.

The report of Rev. H. P. Hamill, Conference Treasurer, for the year 1911-12 shows that he received from the Joint Board of Finance for Educational Extension $1,349.00, and for Randolph-Macon College $2,775.00. That he has paid the first amount to Stonewall Anderson, Corresponding Secretary of its Board of Education, $1,349.00 for which he holds vouchers, and has paid to the Treasurer of Randolph-Macon College $2,775.00, for which he holds vouchers. The balance in the hands of the Conference Treasurer is $14.57.

As Treasurer of the Ministerial Supply and Training Fund, Brother Hamill has collected from Rockingham, Winchester, Roanoke and Moorefield District Conferences $112.40, of which $12.25 was expended in expense of traveling, etc., and $100.15 is on deposit to his credit as Treasurer in the Bank of Blacksburg (See Report approved).

APPOINTMENTS RECOMMENDED.

We recommend that the Conference request the Bishop to appoint Rev. J. A. Kern, D. D., Professor in Vanderbilt University; Rev. H. P. Hamill, Secretary and Treasurer of Education; Rev. L. S. Shires, Principal of Alleghany Collegiate Institute, and Rev. C. K. Millican, Principal of Bowling Green Female Seminary; W. O. Talbott, Associate Principal of Alleghany Collegiate Institute.

MINISTERIAL SUPPLY AND TRAINING.

We recommend that the Committee on Ministerial Supply and Training, consisting of Judge E. D. Newman, Rev. H. P. Hamill and Rev. H. H. Sherman, continue to solicit funds for this work, and that they make investigations as to the propriety of incorporating the Board of Education and make report to this Conference at its next session.

ASSESSMENTS.

We recommend an assessment of $3,173.00 for Educational Extension and $5,000.00 for Randolph-Macon College. The proceeds of the $5,000.00 shall be divided by the Joint Board of Finance as follows: 9/10 to Randolph-Macon College and 1/10 as provided for by the paragraph on Ministerial Supply and Training, contained in our report of last year.

We further recommend that of the 9/10 thus apportioned to the College, $2,000.00 of the amount received from this year's assessment, and $2,000.00 per annum for the three succeeding years, from the collections made for the cause of Education, shall be applied to the General Endowment Fund of Randolph-Macon College, to meet the offer of the General Board of Education, to give $50,000 on condition that an additional amount of $100,000 be subscribed by January 31, 1913.

J. H. BALTHIS,

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We find in the Sunday School Statistics of the Conference cause for congratulation. Figures cannot tell the whole story, but are a fair index to conditions. Sunday School enrollment in our Conference has gone ahead of Church membership and places us in that respect, at the head of Southern Methodism. The liberality of our schools in financial matters, is most encouraging.

Evidence of growing interest in the cause of missions is found in the largely increased contributions of the schools.

In fifteen years, the percentage of Sunday School enrollment to Church enrollment, in our Conference, has increased from 92 per cent. to 103 per cent.; per capita contributions for all purposes from 57.8 cents to 94.6 cents; per capita contributions for Missions from 24.3 cents to 42.1 cents.

These figures should spur us to further effort and continued advance.

ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD.

The Board has organized for the quarrennium by the election of Rev. C. S. Stanton as Chairman, W. W. Millan as Secretary, and O. C. Michael as Treasurer.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Hon. M. L. Walton, who has for more than 21 years rendered the Sunday Schools of the Conference faithful and efficient service, in the office of President of the Conference Sunday School Convention, has found it necessary to decline re-election to that office. We have learned with regret of this decision on his part and record our hearty appreciation of his work in the office.

To succeed Brother Walton, the Board has elected Brother W. W. Millan, who for 18 years has served the Convention as Secretary, thus insuring a continuance of the policies which have made the Convention popular and successful. Brother W. L. Brannan of Fredericksburg has been elected to succeed Brother Millan as Secretary. The two officers, with Rev. H. M. Canter, will constitute the Convention Executive Committee.

Plans for the Convention of this year are under way and will be announced as early as practicable. It will be held at a convenient central point and will offer a program of high order.

OUR LITERATURE.

We commend the continued high character of our Sunday School literature and rejoice in the cheering report of our Sunday School Editor, Dr. E. B. Chappell, that the publications of the department have increased in circulation during the past year, more than one hundred thousand.

Our Sunday School literature is not surpassed by any similar publications issued and there is no reason why a school of our connection should use any other.

TRAINING WORK.

The necessity for trained workers is more apparent than ever. The day of haphazard methods has passed. Intensive work, by people trained to perform it, has become almost as essential to the progress of religious enterprises as to the success of secular business. A trained teacher for every class and a trained officer for every official position in the school is the goal towards which we should press with all possible energy.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TRUNK.

We wish to call attention to the Conference Sunday School trunk. This trunk contains a large collection of samples of Sunday School supplies and equipment, making a really comprehensive Sunday School Exhibit. It has been placed in the official custody of the Secretary of the Board, and the exhibit which it contains is available, on application to him, for use at District Conferences, Sunday School Conventions and institutes and gatherings of Sunday School workers in any part of the Conference.

We recommend a large use of this exhibit.

BRANCH PUBLISHING HOUSE AT RICHMOND, AND SOUTHERN METHODIST
BOOK DEPOSITORY AT STAUNTON.

The Southern Methodist Book Depository at Staunton, Virginia, under the direction of Brother E. B. Lipscomb, will continue to furnish all Sunday School Supplies except the lesson periodicals and graded lessons.

The newly established branch of our publishing house at Richmond, Virginia, is ready to receive orders for all supplies, including the lesson helps and graded lessons.

ADULT DEPARTMENT.

The work of the Organized Adult Bible Class grows apace. In it we see one of the most efficient aids to Church and Sunday School work that has come into existence in recent years. The superintendent of the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department of our Church, Rev. Chas. D. Bulla, is doing valuable work in this Department, and we are greatly pleased to note the large increase in the number of classes enrolled under his administration. We express our cordial appreciation of the Adult Student and our approval of its policy of advertising the work of successful classes through sketches and photographs. In this connection we endorse the following resolution, relative to the duty of our Adult Classes, International, Baraca and Philathea, adopted at the Conference of Chairman of Conference Sunday School Boards recently held in New Orleans:

"Inasmuch as our Church has its own organized Adult Bible Class Department, we urge our presiding elders, pastors, superintendents, and teachers to organize all adult classes according to the plan of our Church and enroll them in the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department, and thus enter into fellowship and partnership with all Southern Methodist classes."

INTERDENOMINATIONAL WORK.

We rejoice in the splendid fraternal and co-operative spirit which pervades Sunday School ranks in all localities where the work is well organized and cordially endorse the work of the Interdenominational Associations, County, State and International, and recommend that our people heartily support them. While we believe that much that is vital to the success of our Schools must be worked out through denominational agencies, the true spirit of the interdenominational organizations referred to, is to give to every school, of every denomination, the best that any other School can offer.

FIELD SECRETARY.

We believe that the condition of our Sunday School work and the necessity of keeping abreast with what is being done in other Conferences of our Church, and by other denominations, within our territory, have brought us to the time when we must arrange for the appointment of a Sunday School Field Secretary as soon as the means of supporting him can be provided. We have appointed a sub-committee to inquire into this subject and endeavor to devise an acceptable plan.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

We urge the observance of Children's Day, and the taking of a Children's Day offering in every school. We believe that the large increase in the fund which might be easily secured through full and cordial co-operation of all our schools, would help us to solve the problem of supporting a Field Secretary.

We find from the reports that 65 charges did not report a Children's Day offering last year. Of these charges 8 are in Baltimore District; 11 in Washington; 6 in Winchester; 9 in Rockingham; 8 in Roanoke; 9 in Lewisburg; and 14 in Moorefield. Offerings should be sent, as soon as taken, to our new Treasurer, O. C. Michael, Aberdeen, Md.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. MILLAN, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

We are glad to report that church extension work is very much in evidence in the Baltimore Conference, our people having responded more generously than ever before. We only regret that owing to the increase of the assessment of the General Board our margin of excess in receipts is so little over that assessment, that the payment of dollar for dollar on that excess will amount this year to a very small sum. Hence we have only $4,500 to distribute among the 18 applicants for aid, who ask for $9,220 from the Conference Board.

Applications for aid from the General Board have been received from five churches and two parsonages, to the extent of $4,000 in donations and $4,900 in loans.

I. PARSONAGES.

This year we have made our first appropriations to parsonages. The work so long and well done by the Woman's Home Mission Society is now committed to us, and aid is rendered in the building of Parsonages as in the building of Churches. This means a considerable additional call on our resources

II. ASSESSMENTS.

The General Board has increased its assessment upon us this year by $501. We therefore recommend that we make our assessment this year $8,851, which is the same as last year. It is startling to know that 68 of our congregations are homeless, one in every nine.

IV. CONFERENCE LOAN FUND.

We again call attention to the action of the General Conference in the matter of conference loan funds. We think the time has come for our conference to begin the creation of such a fund, which can be loaned instead of donated, and thus guarantee a perpetuity of usefulness. We therefore respectfully solicit contributions, bequests, etc., from the friends of the cause. We also hope to be able to set apart a portion of the regular income of the board each year for this purpose.

V. SUNDAY SCHOOL LOAN FUND.

The object of this fund is to encourage the best equipment for Sunday School work and to aid in providing for it. It will be loaned only where adequate provision for efficient Sunday School work is a part of the plan for the proposed structure. Birth-day offerings in the Sunday Schools will be largely depended upon for the creation of this fund. We therefore urge that all the pastors place a jar for such offerings in a conspicuous place in the school room, see that its purposes be explained and report the offerings to this board.

VI. REPRESENTATIVE CHURCH, WASHINGTON, D. C.

We have pleasure in informing the Conference, that with the grant of $2,000 which we have made this year, we have completed the sum of $10,000, which this board was asked to give to this undertaking.

We again commend this enterprise and ask for the whole-hearted support of the Conference to the efforts the local committee will make in raising the $15,000 they are authorized to raise within its bounds. We would suggest that Judge E. D. Newman, T. T. Fishburne, Judge Chas. S. Dice, A. C. Nadenbousch and Louis W. Davis be appointed a committee to co-operate with the local committee in the necessary canvass to raise the above sum.

VII. WOMAN'S HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

The report of the Society was read and its work we most sincerely commend.

We are pleased to note that the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Council will be held this year at Washington, D. C. We esteem the coming of this council a great honor and wish them God speed in their work.

VIII. LITERATURE.

The general office is prepared to send, without cost, the Church Extension handbook, leaflets and charts to any one who will write for them. We take pleasure in calling attention to this helpful literature, and urge its wide circulation. Address Rev. W. F. McMurry, D. D., 1025 Brook St., Louisville, Ky.

IX. MEETING OF CHURCH EXTENSION REPRESENTATIVES.

We are glad to know that our General Board has arranged for a meeting of Church Extension Representatives to be held at Dallas, Texas, Apr. 30—May 1. We have appointed Revs. R. L. Fultz and P. W. Jeffries to represent us there. Rev. W. H. Ballengee was appointed alternate.

X. DISTRICT CONFERENCE REPRESENTATIVES.

We urge upon the Presiding Elders the importance of setting apart a suitable time for the presentation of the cause at the District Conferences. We authorize the President of the Board to secure speakers for these occasions.

XI. APPLICATIONS.

We would call attention of all applicants for aid from this board to the fact:

1st. That all applications must be sent in to the secretary at least ten days before the meeting of Conference.

2nd. To the importance of having them carefully filled up, particularly those parts relating to legal matters.

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION—
REPORT NUMBER 2.

We have heard with interest the statements of the Revs. T. J. Lambert, Presiding Elder of the Winchester District, and G. T. D. Collins, the Pastor in Charge, as to the condition of our Church at Brunswick, Md., and wish to assure our brethren of our sympathy in their effort to change their location, and build a new Church. We shall be glad to give the best aid we can when they are ready to build and to meet the conditions prescribed in the law.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD.

Your Board appreciates the importance of the supreme cause entrusted to it, and rejoices in the increased interest of the Conference in the American Bible Society as evidenced, not only by the enlarged contributions, but by the greater number of charges reporting collections.

In most of the Districts every charge has contributed and the report will show a decided increase over that of any previous year. In addition to the regular contributions a bequest of one hundred dollars from Miss Mary I. Black, late of Blacksburg, Va., is reported through our Conference this year; also ten dollars from Rev. and Mrs. H. P. Hamill on the Russell Sage proposition.

We are pleased to learn through the agency Secretaries at Richmond and Baltimore that our church in the territory occupied by the Baltimore Conference, leads all other churches, both in the number of churches reporting and the amount collected. But we are certain that as increased information is given to the people the contributions will be correspondingly larger.

The demand for the Bible and the work of colportures was never so great as at the present, especially among the foreign immigration, and the American Bible Society finds itself unequal to supply the demands as a result of the need of funds, and is appealing to the Christian world to help it meet these demands by increased contributions. Unless this is done the Society will have to curtail its operations, which will be a calamity.

We recommend, First--That the pastors preach a sermon in the early part of the Conference year on this important subject, and speak of the work of the American Bible Society, and take the required disciplinary collections for the same, using the envelopes which the American Bible Society will furnish free of charge upon application, with reference to an individual canvass.

Secondly—That the Presiding Elders be requested to emphasize the importance of the work of the American Bible Society and the duty of liberal contributions for the same, both in the Quarterly and District Conferences.

Thirdly—That Bible meetings be held in each congregation and agents and others qualified to present this important matter, be invited to make addresses.

We insist that all money raised for the American Bible Society be paid to the treasurer of the Bible Board, Mr. G. W. Laycock, Hamilton, Va. Should there be a sufficient reason for any charge to contribute to a local auxiliary or agent, the pastor shall take a receipt for the same and send it at once to the treasurer to be credited to that appointment.

Since Conference has convened several charges which had not reported as having taken collection, have through their preachers made contributions which will alter the report as the statistical secretary's report will show. This will make a slight discrepancy in the report of the Bible Board and that of the Conference Minutes.

There are three appointments which deserve special mention, namely: Arlington of the Baltimore District which paid $33.50 and Brucetown of the Winchester District which paid $50.00 and St. Paul's of Baltimore District which paid $47.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The Epworth League Board of the Baltimore Annual Conference begs to submit the following report:

We rejoice in the wonderful growth of the Epworth League in our Conference whereby we have now 238 Chapters with a membership of 10,855 members, but we feel that the Leagues have not come to be the potent factor in our Church Life they might be under closer pastoral attention.

We urge that League Chapters be established in connection with every Church in our Conference; that the Chapters of each District be organized under the supervision of the Presiding Elder and hold annually a District League Conference, but where this is not possible we request the Presiding Elders to arrange to give one day of the District Conference to the discussion of League work.

We heartily approve the work of our Corresponding Secretary in the Baltimore Southern Methodist and urge a wider circulation for that paper.

Our General Secretary reports that many of our Chapters have neglected the payment of the annual 10 cent per member assessment. We beg our pastors to see that the League officers give attention to this matter and that agents be appointed to canvass for the larger circulation of the "Epworth Era" our League organ.

While heartily endorsing the work of each department we rejoice in the fact that the Leagues of our great Church have undertaken the entire budget for our Mission work in Cuba and we urge every Chapter to assume some part in this work.

The Baltimore District League in raising last year $1,000 for Wilkens Avenue Church and in assuming this year $1,000 of the Cuban Budget and in establishing mission study classes in "The Advance in the Antilles" has shown something of what may be accomplished with a little effort.

We commend to all our League Chapters the great missionary exposition known as "The World in Baltimore" to be held in October and November of this year and urge the attendance of our young people upon it.

While we appreciate all that our General League officers have done for us in the past we pray them for a larger share of their time in assisting us to thoroughly organize our work throughout the Conference.

We request that hereafter at our Annual Conference one evening be set apart for an Epworth League Anniversary the program to be arranged for by our Conference Board.

Respectfully submitted,

M. H. KEEN, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

REPORT No. 1.

Your Committee on Publishing Interests heartily commends the policy of the Baltimore Southern Methodist and hereby concurs with the request of the Southern Methodist Publishing Company. That the presiding Bishop appoint Rev. C. D. Harris "Conference Editor," and that the Joint Board of Finance be instructed to levy the same assessment as last year, the payment of his salary.

J. H. HALEY, Secy.

W. H. BALLENGEET, Chairman.

REPORT No. 2.

Your Committee on Publishing Interests beg leave to submit the following report:

The Baltimore Southern Methodist commends itself to us and is worthy of our liberal and loyal support. No Conference Organ in our connection has made such a good showing, nor has any paper a more promising future.

It is a source of gratification to all to know that every bill and claim against the paper has been paid up to date.

We are also pleased to note the contemplated improvement in the paper by the twenty page edition, and by the right point type, and we urge all of our pastors and people to give their undivided support to our Church Organ in order that this much needed improvement may be made.

We most heartily commend the true and strong policy that has characterized the business management of the paper.

We would make special reference to the editorials and other strong articles which have given our paper a place not only within the bounds of our own Conference, but have caused it to be republished and quoted in the religious press of the whole country.

The facts produced in the recent editorials are just what we have needed for many years and will give to us not only a more intelligent Methodism, but put us in a true light before all who desire to know the truth.

We would urge our publishers and editors to be careful and exercise proper discretion in accepting matter for advertisement in our periodicals.

The attention of our pastors, Sunday-school superintendents and workers is called to the high class of literature now being issued by our Publishing House and, inasmuch as it is second to none, our people are urged to patronize their own Publishing House in the purchase of supplies.

We call attention to the Nashville Advocate, the general organ of our church, as a paper of superior merits, and we recommend it to the loyal support of our preachers and people.

The Methodist Quarterly Review continues to maintain its high standard and is one of the most helpful of all our publications and is worthy of a larger circulation.

We recommend the Epworth Era as a most helpful periodical to our young people in their Junior and Senior Leagues.

We call attention to our Discipline as a book that should be in every Methodist home.

We are gratified at the progress that our Publishing House has made and at its financial condition. We are especially pleased to call attention to the branch house recently established in Richmond, Va., and recommend it to the patronage of our Conference.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

We are profoundly thankful to Almighty God for the increasing sentiment against the liquor traffic within the borders of our conference and pledge anew our loyalty and most hearty co-operation in every movement which looks to the total and absolute destruction of this terrible evil, especially endorse and commend to our people and church the non-partisan, interdenominational Anti-Saloon League movement, and rejoice in the part which Southern Methodism has had in the creation of this great sentiment against the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, and promise that we will never cease our efforts until this terrible curse shall be blotted from our fair land.

Therefore, Be it Resolved—

First—That we express our thorough confidence in the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League movement in Virginia, and deplore the efforts of the liquor sympathizers to impair their influence and reputation. We earnestly recommend that our preachers and churches co-operate with them in every legitimate way in the furtherance of this work.

Second—We deplore the failure of the General Assembly of Virginia to pass the enabling act to give the people of Virginia the opportunity to vote on State Wide Prohibition, and we endorse the forward movement of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia in the enlargement of its forces and its determination to press the battle before the next General Assembly of Virginia for the right of the people to vote on this question.

Third—We recognize that at this time the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland is waging one of the greatest contests for the rights of the people there has even been in said state, and heartily commend the efforts of the Anti-Saloon League. We hereby express our thorough confidence in the management of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League, and rejoice that there are so many liberal men who are giving their influence, means and time to the delivery of the State from this iniquitous liquor traffic.

Fourth—We rejoice in the successful efforts of the temperance forces of West Virginia to have the question of State-Wide prohibition submitted to a vote of the people, and pray that the result may be the addition of another prohibition state to the growing list of dry American commonwealths. We earnestly urge upon our people there that they do all in their power by word, work, prayer and influence to secure the adoption of the prohibition amendment to the constitution of the State of West Virginia at the election in November, 1912, and we recommend to our preachers in charge within the bounds of said State that they preach at least one sermon at each of their appointments during the ensuing campaign with special reference to this important matter.

Fifth—We exhort our people to earnestly urge their representatives in Congress to use their utmost efforts to secure the passage by Congress of an interstate law which will prevent the shipment of intoxicating liquors from "Wet" States into dry communities of other States, and from any licensed State into any State having State-Wide prohibition laws.

Sixth—As the Temperance lesson furnishes a great opportunity, we urge our Sunday School workers to make the best use of it possible in inculcating this principle in the children, and that the teachers and workers by precept and example teach this great lesson to our boys and girls. And we furthermore recommend the Temperance Trumpeter, the new temperance song book compiled by Rev. J. A. Taylor.

Seventh—We heartily appreciate the great and important work Dr. J. H. Light is doing in connection with the temperance cause, and respectfully request the Bishop to appoint him Secretary of Publication of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia.

C. M. CHILES, Secretary.

J. H. KUHLMAN, President.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, beg leave to submit the following report:

First—The records of all the District Conferences were before us, and each was carefully examined.

Second—The books are well adapted to the purpose for which they are intended, substantially bound and in good condition.

Third—Without exception the records have been neatly kept and properly signed.

W.M. L. SMITH, Secretary.

J. H. WILHITE, Chairman.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance would respectfully submit the following report:

We urge our people to regard more seriously the divine command: "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy," and to make greater effort than ever before to render obedience to this our Father's Word. Men and women cannot willingly or intentionally disregard the requirements of this commandment, by an omission or commission on their part, and at the same time be true and consistent disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Psalmist prayed: "Keep back thy servant from presumptuous sins." We fear many members of the Church of God today are committing presumptuous sins in relation to the Sabbath, without even an honest and sincere prayer to God to be kept back from them.

The declaration of the Eternal Word is, that "If we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins."

In the light of this truth, where are we, and what is our condition today? Let us see: Are we not sinning wilfully, when through love of ease and self-indulgence, we fail to attend upon the ordinances of the Church, after having taken the solemn obligation in the sight of God?

Are we acting without knowledge, when we yield to the inclinations of our carnal nature and participate in the worldly and sinful practices so commonly indulged in on the Sabbath Day by multitudes of people in our country?

No, we have the knowledge, but we are acting presumptuously, but let us not forget that God will hold us responsible, and call upon us to settle the account.

As a people, and as individuals, God has given us great and exalted privileges, and placed upon us solemn and weighty responsibilities.

Because of these things, we, the members of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, put ourselves upon record as being opposed to and condemning:

First—Printing, distributing and reading the Sunday newspapers and periodicals.

Second—Sunday excursions, and all unnecessary travel.

Third—The performance on the Sabbath Day of all unnecessary labor, and transportation of imperishable freight by railroad or any other method of conveyance.

Fourth—Sunday sports, and so-called recreations, such as baseball, football and other practices of like evil character.

Fifth—The discussing and transacting of business affairs on Sunday.

Sixth—Sunday visiting, except for works of mercy and spiritual improvement.

Seventh—Any and all other forms of Sabbath desecration.

We desire further to declare that we are in sympathy with and promise our support to, any and all honorable and legitimate means or agencies, which have as their mission and purpose, the creating or developing in the minds and hearts of our people a higher regard for, and a Christian observance of, the Holy Sabbath Day.

We also recommend the following committee, composed of one person from each Presiding Elder's District, to co-operate with organized movements for the better observance of the Lord's Day, viz.: J. O. Maynard, W. W. Millan, E. L. Broun, Rev. J. A. Taylor, J. D. Alexander, R. L. Johnson and J. B. Clary.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. H. ECHOLS, Secretary.

W. T. GOVER, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FEDERATION.

The Committee on Federation beg leave to report that during the year there has been no meeting of the Committee with the similar Committee of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, no occasion requiring it having arisen.

In the general work of the Federation of the Christian Churches of America we are advised that progress continues to be made under the supervision of the Federal Council established for that purpose. We commend to our people this movement to promote the unity and fellowship of the churches of our country and thus to further the cause of our common Lord.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON THE RELATION OF RANDOLPH-MACON COLLEGE TO THE VIRGINIA AND BALTIMORE ANNUAL CONFERENCES.

At the session of this Conference held in Clifton Forge, Va., beginning March 29th, 1911, in conformity with action taken by the Virginia Conference at its session, 1910, a resolution signed by F. J. Prettyman, E. V. Regester, H. M. Canter, Henry P. Hamill and D. H. Kern, was passed providing for the election by ballot of a committee of three, two clergymen and one layman, to meet a committee of six from the Virginia Conference and of nine from the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College at Ashland, Va., at such time as might be agreed upon, for the purpose of seeking a final settlement of the above cause. In pursuance of such resolution, Mr. T. T. Fishburne, Rev. F. J. Prettyman, and Rev. Henry P. Hamill were duly elected.

The Board of Trustees named its committee on June 13th, in connection with its annual meeting, and later, the same day, a preliminary conference was held. Two members of the Baltimore Committee were present. But as the committee from the Board of Trustees had just been named and for that reason claimed that they were not prepared to go on properly with the conference, it was agreed to adjourn to meet again in Richmond, Va., at 8 P. M. Tuesday, September 12th. Accordingly, at that time and place and in The Blue Room of the Y. M. C. A. building, the several committees assembled. Those representing the Board were E. D. Newman, C. W. Prettyman, David Bush, J. W. Bledsoe, W. W. Lear, W. H. Edwards, R. B. Davis, E. F. Sheffey and W. W. Vicar; the Virginia Conference, J. C. Parker, W. J. Young, T. J. Barham, Frank Talbott, W. Asbury Christian and James Cannon; the Baltimore Conference, T. T. Fishburne, J. H. Light and Henry P. Hamill; J. H. Light being substituted for F. J. Prettyman at the latter's written request, as being next in order of selection, and by consent of the other committees.

Henry P. Hamill was elected chairman, W. W. Vicar secretary, and the more formal proceedings were opened with prayer. There were two sessions, the one from Tuesday, 8 P. M., to midnight; the other from Wednesday, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. The Conference was conducted in a Christian spirit, with distinguished courtesy and brotherliness.

The material proceedings in detail are as follows:

The following resolution was offered for adoption:

Resolved, That the Joint Committees of the Board of Trustees and of the Baltimore Conference and of the Virginia Conference recommend to the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College and to the Virginia and Baltimore Conferences, that the charter of Randolph-Macon College be changed so as to conform, so far as the laws of the State will permit, to paragraph 206 of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in that three-fourths of the Trustees must at all times be members of the said Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and that all of the said Trustees must be confirmed, nominated or elected by a governing body of the Church, or by some board or officers of the Church, to which the power to confirm, nominate or elect trustees has been delegated by the governing body of the Church. (Signed)

W. A. CHRISTIAN,
T. T. FISHBURNE.

This resolution was voted upon with the following result: For the resolution: W. J. Young, James Cannon, W. A. Christian, J. C. Parker, Frank Talbott, T. J. Barham, T. T. Fishburne and J. H. Light. Against the resolution: H. P. Hamill, E. D. Newman, C. W. Prettyman, David Bush, J. W. Bledsoe, W. W. Lear, W. H. Edwards, R. B. Davis, E. F. Shaffey and W. W. Vicar.

The following resolutions were offered by James Cannon and duly seconded:

Resolved, 1. That we hereby recommend to the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, and to the Virginia and Baltimore Conferences, that a Joint Committee be appointed by the said Board of Trustees, and the said Conferences, which Committee shall select a Board of Arbitration, one member of said Board of Arbitration to be selected by the representatives of the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, one member of the said Board of Arbitration to be selected by the representatives of the Virginia and Baltimore Conferences, and if the third member of the said Board of Arbitration cannot be agreed upon by the Joint Committee, he shall be selected by the two arbitrators selected as above.

Resolved, 2. That we hereby recommend that there be referred to this Board of Arbitration the question as to the legality of such change in the charter of Randolph-Macon College as will provide that the Trustees of said College shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, concerning the selection of trustees, and if said Board of Arbitrators shall decide that such change of charter can be legally made, then the Board of Trustees agrees that such change shall be made, and if said Board of Arbitration shall decide that such change of charter is not legal, then the Conferences will withdraw their request for such change.

These resolutions were voted upon with the following result: For the resolutions: W. A. Christian, W. J. Young, J. C. Parker, Frank Talbott, T. J. Barham, James Cannon, T. T. Fishburne and J. H. Light; against the resolutions: E. D. Newman, C. W. Prettyman, David Bush, J. W. Bledsoe, W. W. Lear, W. H. Edwards, R. B. Davis, E. F. Shaffey, W. W. Vicar. H. P. Hamill voted against the resolutions on the ground that if such action should be taken he preferred that the question at issue be submitted at once to the civil courts rather than to a Board of Arbitration.

James Cannon and W. J. Young offered the following preamble and resolutions for adoption:

Whereas, At the session of the Virginia Annual Conference, held in Richmond, Virginia, November, 1910, a resolution was adopted calling for a conference between representatives of the Baltimore and the Virginia Annual Conferences, and representatives of the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, with a view to reaching a peaceable settlement of the question at issue between the said Conferences and the said Board of Trustees; and

Whereas, The Virginia and Baltimore Conferences are Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and all the clerical and lay members of said Conferences are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; and,

Whereas, All the Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, both clerical and lay, are also members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; and,

Whereas, All the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, have entered into a solemn covenant to be subject to the Discipline and laws of said Church and to support its institutions; and,

Whereas, At the session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held in Asheville, North Carolina, in 1910, the Discipline of said Church on the subject of Trustees was amended so as to read: "Trustees of our schools, colleges and universities, must be at least twenty-one years of age, and three-fourths of them must at all times be members of our Church, and all of them must be elected, nominated or confirmed by some governing body of the Church, or by some board or officers of the Church to which the power to confirm, nominate or elect trustees has been delegated by the governing body of the Church, provided, that this provision shall not take effect until July 1, 1912;" and,

Whereas, It is the desire of the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, and also of the preachers and laymen of the Virginia and Baltimore Annual Conferences, that the Randolph-Macon System of schools and colleges shall be known and declared to be the schools and colleges of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the future, as they have been in the past; and,

Whereas, In order to hold this official relation to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, after July 1, 1912, it is necessary that the method of selecting trustees shall conform to the law as laid down in the Discipline upon this subject, as quoted above, we, the members of the Joint Committee of the Virginia and Baltimore Annual Conferences and of the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, recommend to our respective bodies the adoption of the following agreement between the said Virginia and Baltimore Conferences and the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, including or containing the following provisions or stipulations:

First. The Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College hereby agrees that it will rescind the action taken in June, 1909, submitting the names of the persons to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College to the respective Conferences for approval.

Second. The Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College furthermore agrees that it will rescind its action of August 16, 1906, declaring that in the "choice of trustees, officers, etc., there are no denominational tests."

Third. While maintaining that the charter of Randolph-Macon College confers upon the Trustees the authority to fill all vacancies arising in said Board in whatever manner the majority of said Board may elect, yet recognizing their obligation as members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to comply, as far as the laws of the State of Virginia will permit, with the Discipline of the said Church, the Trustees furthermore agree that the property held by the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College is the property of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and is held by said Trustees for said Church, and in order that the said system of schools and colleges may retain unbroken its relation to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Board of Trustees agrees that whenever any vacancy shall arise in the membership of said Board, the Board will nominate to the Conference, among whose representatives the vacancy has occurred, the name of a person to fill said vacancy, and should such nomination be approved by the Conference, the Board agrees that it will formally elect such person to fill the vacancy; and should the Conference decline to approve such nomination, the Board agrees that it will nominate another person, or persons, for said vacancy until said vacancy is filled as indicated above.

Fourth. The Board of Trustees agrees that it will take no action to change this agreement except by consent of a majority of the members of the Virginia and Baltimore Conferences.

Fifth. The Board of Trustees hereby agrees that it will not in the future ask to be placed upon the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, except on such conditions as will be accepted by the Conferences by majority vote.

Sixth. In view of the above stipulation, the Conferences hereby bind themselves to give to the system of Randolph-Macon schools and colleges their hearty moral and financial support, pledging co-operation in every proper way to build up and strengthen said institutions, claiming them in the future, as in the past, as our own Church schools, and accepting this action as a full and satisfactory settlement of all the issues which have arisen between the said Conferences and the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College.

(Signed)

JAMES CANNON,

W. J. YOUNG.

This paper was voted upon with the following result: For the paper: James Cannon, W. J. Young, W. A. Christian, J. C. Parker, Frank Talbott, T. J. Barham, T. T. Fishburne, and J. H. Light. H. P. Hamill voted for the third and fourth resolutions, and against the rest of the paper. Against the paper: E. D. Newman, C. W. Prettyman, David Bush, J. W. Bledsoe, W. W. Lear, W. H. Edwards, R. B. Davis, E. F. Sheffey, and W. W. Vicar.

J. W. Bledsoe offered the following paper in the name of the entire committee of nine from the Randolph-Macon Board:

Whereas, Our Randolph-Macon System of schools and colleges is in its organization and subsequent history closely and intimately associated with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and has for so many years enjoyed the patronage and support of that Church, especially as represented in the Virginia and Baltimore Conferences; and,

Whereas, Because of this fact the institutions of this System are justly and properly termed denominational or Methodist; and,

Whereas, It is most earnestly desired that this bond of interest, sympathy and co-operation should not be in any sense weakened, but rather made stronger; therefore,

Resolved. That the Virginia and Baltimore Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the two patronizing Conferences of the Randolph-Macon System, be and are hereby requested to appoint annually in such manner as they may prefer an Advisory Committee to be composed of three members, two from the Virginia Conference and one from the Baltimore Conference, and that this committee shall be invited to attend the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College and shall be privileged to take part in an advisory way in the deliberations of that Board. it being understood that the courtesy thus freely extended shall not include the privilege of voting.

This resolution was voted upon with the following result: For the resolution: J. W. Bledsoe, W. W. Lear, W. H. Edwards, R. B. Davis, E. F. Sheffey, W. W. Vicar, E. D. Newman, C. W. Prettyman, and David Bush. Against the resolution: James Cannon, W. J. Young, W. A. Christian, J. C. Parker, Frank Talbott, T. J. Barham, T. T. Fishburne, H. P. Hamill, and J. H. Light, the votes in the negative being given against the resolution as not containing a satisfactory final settlement of the question at issue, and in two or three cases the voters in the negative objecting also to the statements in the preamble.

It was decided that the three committees would report back to their separate bodies an account of the proceedings of the Conference, including all the propositions presented and the votes thereupon.

On motion, by unanimous vote the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College was requested to meet sometime before November 1, 1911, to consider the report of the proceedings of the conference, and to take final action thereupon.

And then the conference adjourned sine die.

The Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College met in special session on October 5, 1911, and adopted the following paper:

Whereas, A resolution passed by this Board of Trustees at a called meeting held in Richmond, Virginia, August 16, 1906, relating to the election of trustees to fill vacancies, has been construed by many of our preachers and laymen, and notably by Dr. H. S. Pritchett, Chairman of the Carnegie Board, as committing this Board to a change of policy in electing trustees; and,

Whereas, The resolution aforesaid was designed by this Board simply to represent and to declare the legal position of our Board under the terms and conditions of our charter; and,

Whereas, No change of policy was contemplated, but rather a continuance of the policy, plans and methods heretofore pursued under the charter; now, therefore, that there may be no just ground for difference of opinion or interpretation in regard to this matter—

1. Resolved, That the resolution mentioned as passed by this Board August 16, 1906, be and the same is hereby rescinded.

2. Resolved, That we rescind the resolution adopted by this Board in June, 1909, giving the Conferences the right to approve the election of trustees.

3. Resolved, That when there are vacancies in the Board of Trustees, we will submit one name for each vacancy to the Conference in which said vacancy exists, for approval at the session at which the same is presented, and when approved, we will elect.

4. Resolved, That these resolutions are not to be repealed, except by a three-fourths vote of the Board of Trustees.

5. Resolved, That we herein affirm our devotion and loyalty to the Methodist Church, and offer these resolutions as a full settlement of the differences existing between the Conferences and the Board of Trustees.

6. Resolved, That if the Virginia and Baltimore Conferences shall at their next session fail to accept the foregoing as a full and satisfactory settlement of the questions at issue, then the action of this Board as embodied in this preamble and these resolutions shall be null and void.

Adopted by the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College at a meeting held at Ashland, Virginia, October 5, 1911.

W. W. VICAR, Secretary.

In conclusion your committee has given careful consideration to the above paper, adopted by the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College; and in view of the fact that by the adoption of this paper the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College rescinds the resolution adopted by that board in 1906, and thus removes the ground for the difference of opinion which has existed as to the meaning and effect of that resolution; and in view of the additional fact that by the adoption of this paper the Randolph-Macon Board of Trustees has complied with the Discipline of our Church, which provides that all trustees shall be confirmed, nominated or elected by some governing body of our Church, your Committee hereby recommends to the Baltimore Annual Conference that this action be and is hereby accepted as a full and final settlement of the questions at issue between the Baltimore Annual Conference and the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College.

Respectfully submitted,

F. J. PRETTYMAN,
T. T. FISHBURNE,

Committee.

PROTEST AGAINST THE ACTION OF THE CONFERENCE IN THE RANDOLPH-MACON MATTER.

We, the undersigned members of the Baltimore Conference, respectfully protest against the action taken by the Conference on the resolution adopted at the meeting of the Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, held October 5th, 1911, proposing to submit for the approval of the Conference the names of the persons selected by the Trustees to fill vacancies in their own body, because: We believe the Trustees have no right to share with anyone the authority and responsibility of electing members of their board, and it is not proper for the Conference to enter into an arrangement or agreement which contemplates a breach of duty by Trustees. In this connection we call attention to the fact that at the said meeting of the Trustees eight members of the board signed and filed the following protest, viz:

"We, believing that the action of the Trustees in passing this resolution is illegal and is in violation of our obligation and duties as Trustees, enter our protest against the action of the board.

JOHN A. ANDERSON,	C. W. PRETTYMAN,
JOHN W. WOODS,	ED. S. CONRAD,

We are informed that four, or perhaps five, of the Trustees who were not in attendance at said meeting of October 5th, 1911, have signified that they would have signed said protest if they had been present.

We request that this our protest go to record.

JOSEPH JACKSON ENGLE.

Joseph Jackson Engle was born in Hampshire County, Virginia (now West Virginia) November 25, 1832, and died at his home, near Berryville, Va., September 4, 1911.

Brother Engle was converted at a camp-meeting in Hampshire County when a youth, and joined the Methodist Church, and feeling called of God to preach was duly licensed a local preacher. His name first appears in the minutes of the Baltimore Conference in 1856. That year he traveled Wardensville Circuit as junior preacher. Then one year each on Christiansburg, Newport and Newcastle Circuits. In 1861 he was at Salem with J. C. Dice, and in 1862-3 he served as chaplain in the Confederate Army. His health failing, he left the army, and in 1864-5 he traveled Rockbridge Circuit. He was appointed to Mt. Sidney at the Conference of 1866, and served there three years.

He was appointed to Churchville Circuit in 1869, and served there three years: 1872-3, Bridgewater; 1874-7, Roanoke; 1878-81, Freedom. His old army trouble returning, he asked a superannuated relation at the Conference of 1882, and was never able to re-enter the effective ranks. It is easy to estimate the life of a man as ingenuous as J. J. Engle. He had no concealments. Frank, manly, noble in his life before God and men, he lived his life as a Christian and a citizen, and no man questioned his honesty and sincerity. He was a converted man, and never doubted his relation to God as his Father, and he considered his call to the ministry of Jesus Christ as direct and sure as were the convictions that led him to faith in the Saviour. He was not very demonstrative, but never hesitated to tell what God had done for him.

Great revivals were the fruit of his ministry, and many whom he lead to Christ doubtless welcomed him when at last he got home. He was a Methodist of the old sort, and believed in his Church and her doctrines. Nor did he follow blindly any man, but read and thought for himself, and the more he read and thought the more firmly he held to the interpretation the Methodist Church gives to the word of God, and the more gladly he preached her theology. He received the Bible as the inspired word of God, and strove to form his life according to the divine precepts. Brother Engle was for thirty years or more a sufferer, but never complained. Believing that what he suffered was by the will of God, he bore each day's pain patiently in hope of the rest at last in Heaven.

During the last few months of his life there was a strikingly beautiful smile which came now and then as he talked with some friends, and that grew in sweetness as he drew near the end. The end came suddenly, and he passed away without pain. After a restless night, his daughter went to his bedside toward the morning and spoke to him, but there was no response, the spirit had passed up to God. December, 1862, Brother Engle was married to Miss Mary Isabelle Goodwin, of Botetout County, Va., who survives him, together with two children, Rev. J. S. Engle, a member of the Baltimore Conference M. E. Church, South, and Mrs. Mamie Gaunt. For nearly fifty years she was his counsellor and helper in his work for God, bearing with him the toil of the itinerant life and now looking to the reunion with her husband in heaven. A good man has gone to be with his God and Saviour.

ASBURY CAPERTON McNEER.

Asbury Caperton McNeer, son of A. B. and Sarah T. McNeer, was born January 2, 1845, near Salt Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and departed this life December 19, 1911, in his home, near Alderson, W. Va. He was of Scotch descent, and the oldest child of a family of nine children. Two brothers and six sisters survive him.

Brother McNeer was married three times. His first marriage was with Miss Marietta Deisher, of Botetout County, Va. His second was with Miss Frances R. Circle, of Botetout, Va. There were three children by this marriage, viz.: Ella D., Rembert D., a member of the Baltimore Conference, M. E. Church, South, and Emerald B. McNeer, all of whom are living. His third marriage was with Miss Mattie Horn Nulty, of Rockbridge County, Va., who survives him, and now mourns the loss of a kind and faithful husband. By the last marriage there were five children, four of whom survive.

A. C. McNeer was converted in his boyhood. At the age of 13 years he took upon himself the vows of Church membership. This was largely the early fruitage of Christian training received in the home of his childhood. His parents were faithful members of the Methodist Church, whose home was pervaded by a Christian atmosphere.

In 1868 Brother McNeer was licensed to exhort by the Quarterly Conference of Centerville Circuit, held at Johnson's Cross Roads, Rev. J. H. Waugh presiding. Soon thereafter he was licensed to preach and preached his first sermon in his home church. In 1870 he served on Blue Sulphur Circuit under the P. E., and was admitted on trial in the traveling connection, in the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the spring of 1871, at the session of the Conference held in Salem, Va., Bishop Geo. F. Pierce presiding. His first appointment was to Wardensville Circuit as junior preacher with Rev. Wm. Hedges, as preacher in charge. 1872-3 he served Alleghany Circuit. 1874, Montgomery Circuit, Md., with Rev. Wm. A. McDonald, P. C.; 1875, South Fork Mission; 1876, Hary Mission; 1877-8-9, Bath Circuit; 1880-81, New Castle; 1882, Mount Bethel; 1884-86, James River; 1887-8-9, Furnace Mission; 1890-91, Rockingham Circuit; 1892-3-4, West Augusta; 1895-6-7, Greenville, W. Va.; 1898-99, Rockbridge Baths. In 1900 he was appointed the second time to Bath Circuit. In 1901-2, to Collierstown, and in 1903 was appointed the second time to Allegany Circuit, where he served three more years. Here the itinerant career of this faithful, uncomplaining servant of God closed. In 1906 he felt compelled to request a place upon the retired list of our ranks. And, truly, Asbury C. McNeer merited a place among that noble band, who have wrought faithfully in cultivating Immanuel's land and upon whose labors we have entered. For 36 years he wrought faithfully in 16 different fields of labor, not one which was the most remunerative among us. He served in some of the most difficult places in our territory. He may possibly have complained because of the meagreness of the support he received in some of these fields, but if so the writer of these lines failed to hear his expressions of complaint. Unequally, he went to his work in the Master's name, and possessing a good degree of the Master's spirit. His reward is on high.

In manner, Brother McNeer was reticent and unassuming. As a preacher, he was plain, practical and scriptural, a faithful expounder of the word of God. He loved to preach, and after his retirement from the active work was always ready to render cheerfully such services as his impaired health would permit. His last sermon was preached in Trinity Church, near his home, a short time before his death. His last illness was not protracted. He died of pneumonia after a brief illness of one week. Living, he "lived unto the Lord," and dying, he "died unto the Lord," and now has joined "the great multitude which no man can number, before the Throne."
